2. U.S.S. SURFBIRD (ADG-383) began 1967 in her homeport in overhaul by Ship Repair Department, Commander Fleet Activities, Sasebo, Japan.

Completing overhaul in early March and after a week of provisioning she departed on a two month cruise which included operational visits to Sattahip, Thailand, Tsoying, Taiwan and Sangley Point, Philippines; recreational visits to Bangkok, Thailand and Hong Kong, BCC and a short logistics stop in Subic Bay, Philippines prior to returning to Sasebo in early May.

Late May and early June had SURFBIRD at Yokosuka, Japan going through refresher training, which was highly successful as she obtained a final grade of excellent.

SURFBIRD provided ranging and deperming services in Sasebo from mid-June until mid-August with the exception of two quick trips in which she provided both services to the ROKN at Chinhae, Korea and ranging services to MINEDIV 93 at Subic Bay, Philippines.

On 20 August SURFBIRD joined with U.S.S. PHOEBE (MSC-199), U.S.S. WARBLER (MSC-206), U.S.S. HIPPOCAMPUS (MSC-207) and U.S.S. WOODPECKER (MSC-209) to form TG 133.5 which cruised south to Buckner Bay, Okinawa for a mine warfare exercise. Commanding Officer U.S.S. SURFBIRD (ADG-383) was SOPA and OTC of the task group.

Following a logistics stop in Subic Bay, SURFBIRD rendezvoused with three MSB's one mile south of Vung Tan, South Vietnam the morning of 8 September and escorted them to Con Son Island for ranging and calibration operations. The next six days while at this picturesque island the evening meal was cooked on the beach and swimming was the main activity from 1600 to sunset.

Having escorted the three MSB's back to Vung Tan, SURFBIRD steamed to the mouth of the Sarawak River and two hours later at 0800 on 18 September 1967 became the first United States Ship to visit Kuching (Sarawak, Borneo) Malaysia since before the end of World War II. The citizens of Kuching welcomed the crew with open arms, inviting them into their homes and to share in their activities. Many of the crew felt that Kuching was the most friendly and interesting port visited in 1967.

After a brief logistics stop in Subic Bay and a visit to Hong Kong, SURFBIRD arrived back in Sasebo, Japan on 10 October having completed her second two month deployment of the year. A short upkeep period followed; then a brief operational visit to Chinhae, South Korea was followed by another week of upkeep back in Sasebo.

Five November had SURFBIRD enroute on her third two month Deployment. First stops were in Danang, Qui Nhon, Vung Ro Bay and Cam Ranh Bay, South Vietnam to survey for degaussing range sights.

On 17 November SURFBIRD crossed the Equator at Longitude 105°-00'E and all lowly Polywogs who had dared to enter the royal domain of Neptunus Rex were promptly initiated into the Solemn Mysteries of the Ancient Order of the Deep. The next morning she arrived in Port Swettenham, Malaysia for a visit, and most of the crew took advantage of the stay by sightseeing and shopping in Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia's Capitol City) which was only 30 miles away.

Having cruised through the Palawan Passage, SURFBIRD arrived in Subic Bay, where she ranged MINEDIV 91 and her PCO embarked. This was followed by an operational visit to Tsoying Taiwan. While in Tsoying, LT Edward M. WILLIAMS, USN relieved LCDR Merice T. NELLES, USN as Commanding Officer in a traditional ceremony on 5 December. RADM Chou-Fei of the Republic of China Navy was the honored guest.

SURFBIRD arrived back in her homeport on 12 December and finished out the year providing ranging service to various units of TG 70.5. Thus, even though she had spent the first two and one half months of the year in overhaul and to perform her primary mission must be moored or anchored; SURFBIRD spent over one fifth of the year at sea and cruised 22, 742 nautical miles enroute to different ports for work and visits.

3. A total of 96 ships were ranged during 1967 using the portable degaussing equipment carried on-board or the permanently installed facilities at Sasebo; also 5 ships were depermed in 1967. A breakdown by country of these totals follow:

COUNTRY	RANGED	DEPERMED
United States	63	0
Japan	5	3
Republic of China	12	0
Republic of Korea	6	2
Republic of Thailand	9	0
Republic of Philippines	1	0
